SHORT TERM MISSIONS DEBRIEF DAY 2019

'The Debrief Day was a fantastic opportunity to "process through" some of the experiences that I had overseas. It was really helpful to talk through things with others who had also experienced similar situations in different countries. Because I was able to reflect on being back in Australia, the Debrief Day also gave me further clarity about how I would like to be involved in missions in the future. It was an excellent day, full of great activities and prayer. I learnt a lot and would highly recommend it!' – from Georgie in 2018.

The Debrief Day is an opportunity for anyone who has served in short term mission in the previous year to come and debrief, process and evaluate their experiences and to consider and pray about what God has in store for their lives in the future. You are very welcome to come along if you are a returned short termer, if you lead short term mission trips or are involved in mentoring, training or helping those who go on short term mission.

Keynote speaker is Tammy Wang - a clinical psychologist who has been working for more than 10 years, in private practice and educational settings. A lot of Tammy's work is around anxiety, depression, and family issues. She has done 5 short-term trips, 4 to the same country/city.
